C·A·B INTERNATIONAL

AB International (CABI) is an international, intergovernmental organization registered with the United ations. It is owned and administered by its member governments; these currently number 29, but embership is open to all governments who wish to participate. Established in 1928, the organization ovides information, scientific, and development services for agriculture and allied disciplines throughout e world.

formation Services

ne main task of the Information Services, located at the CAB International Centre (CABIC) at allingford, is the creation of a bibliographic database of research on agriculture, forestry and allied sciplines, including social sciences and aspects of human medicine. Abstract journals derived from the tabase, and online access to it, provide a unique source of information for research scientists, development anners, educators and students. Subsidiary but growing tasks are the publication of primary journals and ference works, and training information professionals in developing countries.

ne Accessions Unit acquires the relevant scientific and technical literature for abstracting by almost 100 ientists/linguists in the following 11 Bureaux:

Agricultural Economics
Animal Breeding & Genetics
Animal Health
Dairy Science & Technology
Nutrition
Pastures & Field Crops
Crop Protection
Horticulture & Plantation Crops
Plant Breeding & Genetics
Soils
Forestry

rther material is acquired and processed by collaborating or contracted organizations. Other staff ordinate work on specialized directories and databanks, and commission new books and primary journals. ne Publications Unit is responsible for printing the journals and books, and the Marketing & Sales Division omotes and sells Information Services products and services worldwide.

ientific Services

ABI's Scientific Services consist of four Institutes and two support services:

AB International Institute of Entomology (CIE), Director Dr K.M. Harris, located at 56 Queen's Gate, ndon, and in the British Museum, Natural History.

AB International Mycological Institute (CMI), Director Professor D.L. Hawksworth, located at Ferry Lane, ew, London, adjacent to the Royal Botanic Gardens.

AB International Institute of Parasitology (CIP), Director Dr R. Muller, located at Winches Farm, St. bans, the field station of the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine.

ese three Institutes provide an authoritative identification service for agricultural pests and other ganisms, conduct research, implement projects, and provide training in their fields of expertise.

AB International Institute of Biological Control (CIBC), Director Dr D.J. Greathead, has its headquarters at ilwood Park, Ascot, the field station of Imperial College of Science and Technology, University of London. has stations in Trinidad and Tobago, Switzerland, Pakistan, Kenya and Malaysia. It provides biocontrol rvices, conducts training, and participates in integrated pest management programmes.

evelopment Services (CDS), Head Mr D. Heydon, integrate the broad range of CABI expertise to provide vice and assistance with agricultural problems, but particularly those related to pest management and formation services.

ibrary Services, Manager Mr C.J. Hamilton, have their headquarters with CIBC at Silwood Park, where the ain Library is held, with additional literature collections at CMI, CIP, CDS and CABIC. Library Services perate a Document Delivery Service.

he Systems Division provides computing resources and services to all parts of CABI. It maintains a central mputing facility with telecommunications access to seven remote sites, including the four CABI Institutes. ABIC is served by a modern Local Area Network which provides access to the computers, and by dvanced office automation facilities. The main computers are DEC VAX systems and the principal software ystems are BASIS for data management and PAGER for typesetting and information retrieval.

he staff of 20 includes database production personnel, systems analysts, programmers and computer perators. The principal systems are for the production of the CABI bibliographic database and associated nctions, plus accessions control, subscription management and electronic publishing.

CAB INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION SERVICES
PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Almost 100 scientists/linguists in the 11 Bureaux of CABI's Information Services at Wallingford, UK, with he from associated organizations and individuals worldwide, abstract and index the significant research ar development literature in agriculture, forestry and allied disciplines. Over 10,000 serials and many oth publications are scanned, and approximately 130,000 bibliographic records are compiled each year. From th computerized database is derived a wide range of information services and products in hard copy and machine readable form, designed to meet a variety of customer needs.

Subscribers decide their own search profile and receive search results at intervals of th choice, either as computer printout or on floppy discs suitable for most microcomputers. Delivery by airmail.

CAB Alerts

This is a special SDI service providing subscribers each month with the search results from standard profil chosen by CABI. Numerous titles are available and the list is regularly updated to reflect new subject interes Output is available on computer printout posted by airmail.

MACHINE–READABLE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Online Access

The machine–readable database, known as CAB ABSTRACTS, is publicly accessible online through DIALO Information Services (USA), BRS Information Technologies (USA), ESA–IRS (Italy), DIMDI (GFR), JICST (Japa CAN–OLE (Canada) and Tsukuba Daigaku (Japan). The whole database back to 1973 contains over 2 milli records. Search aids include the CAB ABSTRACTS Online Manual, the CAB Thesaurus (1988 Edition) and t CAB International Serials Checklist (1988).

CAB ABSTRACTS on Compact Disc

The database is also available on CD–ROM (Compact Disc Read Only Memory). Volume one contai bibliographic citations and abstracts for 1984–86; the second volume contains the 1987–89 data. CD–RO technology provides an online search capability without the worries of cost or telecommunication problems. IBM or fully IBM–compatible PC, 640 K RAM, MS–DOS or PC–DOS version 2.1 or higher, and a CD–ROM play are needed. The SPIRS (SilverPlatter Information Retrieval System) software allows maximum search flexibility.

Magnetic tapes

Organizations with access to mini or mainframe computers may lease all or part of CAB ABSTRACTS on magne tape. Update tapes are issued monthly, and retrospective tapes as required.

OTHER PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Document Delivery Service

Photocopies of originals of most articles included in the database are available from CABI Library Servic Silwood Park, Ascot, UK. Documents may also be ordered online via DIALOG's DIALORDER or ESA/IR PRIMORDIAL.
